Bosa is situated on the valley of the Temo River. It is the only center in Sardinia built next to a river estuary which is navigable by boats with low draughts for over 5-6 km. It has developed on a fraction coast (Bosa Marina). Near this visited beach resort there is a port that once was the Rosa Island, near the river mouth, now it is joined to the dry land through driveway fortresses. The ancient village shelters behind the Serravalle hill slopes, on which top there is the Malaspina medieval castle.

The Santu Antine nuraghe” called “Sa domu de su Re” too (in Italian King's house) which is one of the most majestic nuraghe from whole island and one of the most important from Sardinia.

It is located in the historical region from Meilogu, in the Torralba commune. It is one of other 30 nuraghe on the Cabu Abbas plain. The Santu Antine nuragic complex represents an important example of the Mediterranean prehistoric architecture and it is estimated that originally the central dungeon height reached from 22 to 24 meters.
